AUDITION INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

The directors of all ten of the shows being produced at the 10x10 are attending this general auditions. Candidates will read sides from one or more plays during their audition. Each director will consider all candidates for their respective productions on an individual basis.

Actors are not required to present a prepared monologue during their audition.

Please bring a copy of your headshot and resume to the audition and know what dates for you are conflicts during the rehearsal period that begins in July at the discretion of the director. You must be available for all technical rehearsals and on the dates of all performances on December 9, 10, 11 & 12.

Please plan to arrive early to give yourself adequate preparation time. We recommend arriving at least 15 minutes early so you can check in and prepare for your audition. The directors may also call you early if you are ready and they are ahead of schedule. You can also take that time to fill out the necessary paperwork and glance over the schedules and time commitments outlined for each show.

If you are cast in a production following the auditions, the director will notify you during the first week of November.
